Complaint for Patent Infringement

On July 25, 2008, LecTec Corporation (the "Company") filed a complaint for patent infringement (the "Complaint") against Chattem, Inc., Endo Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Johnson & Johnson Consumer Company, Inc., The Mentholatum Company, Inc. and Prince of Peace Enterprises, Inc. (collectively, the "Defendants") in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. The Complaint alleges, among other things, that the Defendants have infringed two of the Company's patents (the "Patents"), which relate to the Company's medicated patch technology. The Company is seeking to enjoin the Defendants from infringing the Patents and to recover monetary damages related to such infringement, as well as interest and litigation costs. Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

(d) Exhibits.

99.1 Press release, dated July 25, 2008, of LecTec Corporation.
